About Hajj
Hajj is the fifth of five pillars (Arkan) of Islam. It is a duty obligatory on every Muslim, man or woman, who has reached the age of puberty, and is sound of mind to perform the Hajj once in his or her lifetime provided that they have the means to do so.
During Hajj, certain rites are performed by the pilgrims symbolic of the lives of Ibrahim and his wife Hajar. Starting on 8th of the Dhul-Hijja, it ends on 12th and includes taking preparations, dressing in Ihram, performing several types of Tawaf and Sayee, praying and staying in Mina, going to Arafat for prayer, animal sacrifice, symbolic stoning of the devil, drinking from the well of Zamzam.
